

SOIL CULTURE, FRANKENSTEIN—GRAFTED

kneeling beside the thing she had put

together

kneeling beside the thing he

had put

together

animated

matter

these are

assembled grafted

commencement

enticements :

sifting out

of warm weather

certain

inserting errors

the object of this volume is something other than this existing sky

propagated by cuttings

ice glazed limbs

sowing so as :

the secret of the magnet

the falling of pollen from a tassel upon silk

salient angling

Sources:

Soil Culture by J. H. Walden (1858)

Frankenstein; or, The Modern Prometheus by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley (1818)

"Inlaying (Grafting)" illustration above is Clipart© courtesy FCIT.

"SOIL CULTURE, FRANKENSTEIN — GRAFTED"
Poem + art by Larkin Higgins for Dusie Kollektiv
at AWP in Boston, 2013. ∞